<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Learning Area</th>
<th>Learning Goals</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| English   | Students will understand …
                 • that authors make specific and considered language choices to suit their intended purpose.

Students will be able to …
• analyse and compare similarities and differences between two short stories. |
| Maths     | Students will understand …
                 • ordering and comparing fractions with related denominators, adding and subtracting fractions with related denominators

Students will be able to …
• make connections between units of measure and decimals. |
| Science   | Students will understand …
                 • that changes to materials can be reversible or irreversible.

Students will be able to …
• make informed personal decisions based on their knowledge of reversible and irreversible changes regarding recycling. |